

INITIAL ASSESSMENT

New Name Counseling and Teaching Center is a non-profit, non-denominational counseling and teaching organization. New Name employs a method of individualized discipleship utilizing spiritual principles. In this kind of counseling process God, not the counselor is the agent of change, provided the individual cooperates with Him. Our goal is to convey a way of freedom from mental, emotional, and behavioral symptoms.

Because of our unique approach, New Name trains its own staff or hires staff with similar training. Therefore, New Name does not look to secular standards to necessarily qualify a person for a staff role. New Name staff members are not licensed professional counselors; instead, many are licensed and or ordained ministers, some are not.

Because we are a training center, it is imperative for our trainees to observe the counseling process. Therefore, as a rule, you can expect to have present in your sessions both staff and trainee.

At New Name, we do not charge for our counseling services rather we function on a donation basis. The recommended donation is $90.00 per individual for a single session and $125.00 per couple for a single session. If you have a financial need, please discuss it with your counselor during the assessment. Because you are receiving a service, your donations are not tax deductible. However, since New Name is a nonprofit organization, other contributions to New Name may be considered tax deductible.

To ensure the highest quality of counseling we reserve the right for your counselor to consult with his or her supervisor regarding your session. This consultation will be held in strict confidence.
